MUMBAI - World Trade Centre

The Show

The Islamic Travel Mart will be the premier marketplace and meeting point for the Islamic Tourism industry in India. Leading travel professionals from the Haj, Umrah, Ziyarat, Halal and mainstream travel sector will come together to discuss the development of travel & tourism to the Islamic world as well as the key challenges facing its growth.

Why India

Over 31% of the global Muslim population resides in South Asia, comprising India, Bangladesh, Maldives, Sri Lanka, Nepal and Pakistan. Of these, India has the second largest Muslim population, around 189 million.

Over 500,000 pilgrims travel every year for Haj from South Asia, of which around 170,000 are from India. In addition to Haj, a large number of pilgrims travel for Umrah and Ziyarat and this number is growing every year.

The Halal or the Muslim Friendly tourism market was valued at US$ 155 billion in 2017, and is expected to hit a staggering US$ 300 billion by 2026 according to the Global Muslim Travel Index 2017.

Why Mumbai

Mumbai is the business and entertainment capital of India, with an affluent Muslim population. In addition to these, it is in close proximity to Saudi Arabia and the Middle East, with the shortest flying time from any major Indian city, and thus the hub of all the leading Haj, Umrah and Ziyarat tour operators in the country.

Show Format

Business to Business (B2B): This is an exclusive B2B show. The three days are reserved for buyers, government officials and business visitors to interact with sellers of Haj, Umrah, Ziyarat & Halal travel products.

Conference and Workshops: A conference program is being curated and workshops are being organised to discuss the latest trends and explore the challenges and opportunities in the Islamic and Halal travel market.
